Professor Susan Nancarrow PhD(ANU), MAppSc(QUT), BAppSc(Pod)(QUT), GAICD

Susan Nancarrow is Professor of Health Sciences and the Deputy Vice Chancellor (Research) at Southern Cross University in Northern New South Wales, Australia. Susan originally trained as a podiatrist, but has been working across disciplines as a health services researcher for nearly 20 years. She has a particular interest in health workforce research and reform, service delivery and organisation. Prior to working at Southern Cross University, Susan worked in Sheffield, in the UK for 10 years, examining workforce change in the NHS. Susan is particularly committed to regional and rural health issues and capacity building. She is currently leading a large project to map the allied health workforce in Victoria. Susan is a Director of the Northern NSW Local Health District Board and Chair of the North Coast Allied Health Association.
